"I need to Factor my PO"	PO funding searched 2 times Factoring	Be ready to explain the difference-Critical to educate and turn them to factoring!

Specificity and Locality sell! Close the prospect on our expertise and understanding of their unique issues. Close on getting an application with A/R Report and contracts/PO's. Sell Peace of Mind (USP, Credit Protection & A/R Mgmt). Remember, an Application without A/R Report/PO's is worthless. Don't run from verification. It is a good thing! It is just Outsourced A/R Mgmt. Bankers' friendly, professional verification historically reduces DSO. Sell Bankers' famous "soft touch" interface with account debtors. What is our niche? What sets us apart? How do we want perceived?

Bankers Factoring is in the education business. An educated prospect is appreciative and they will allow you some manner of control. But this is not just about persuasion. It's about a connection.

It's about two people, who are strangers, reaching through physical and mental space and trying to understand each other and reach common ground.

It's not about money. It's not about the idea. It's not about yes or no. It's about the Prospect liking and trusting you and the owner-employees of Bankers Factoring.

What customer problem(s) is Bankers solving? Why is Bankers the right company and you the specific person (or our team) to solve it?

When the prospect states a business pain... STOP YOURSELF FROM OFFERING SOLUTIONS. Instead ask questions: How important is it to resolve? What's the current plan to resolve? What's the downside of not resolving? Do you have authority to resolve? Is there money to resolve (from Bankers!)?

"I'm Thinking of Making a Factoring Change"

The 3 must ask questions when you receive the considering a change call.

- 1. What's currently happening or not happening that has brought you to decide a change is necessary?
- 2. What is the key criteria the new partnership needs to fulfill?
- 3. What is the timeline and milestones expected to implement the change?

Discuss these questions and field others your people suggest to ask before investing time in a proposal or before setting up a meeting.
