

opportunity to present this detailed and comprehensive proposal. This document is meticulously designed to fully support and exceed the specific diagnostic and regulatory requirements of Dee Davis Inc. We sincerely appreciate your interest in our industry-leading solutions and are deeply committed to establishing a robust, collaborative, and long-term strategic partnership with your distinguished organization.

-----Executive Summary and Partnership Vision

This proposal outlines a strategic partnership focused on supplying Dee Davis Inc. with high-quality, cost-effective, and fully compliant CLIA-Waived drug testing products. Our commitment is to provide not only superior products but also operational efficiency and unparalleled supply chain security, ensuring seamless integration into your current processes. We aim to be more than a vendor; we strive to be a trusted diagnostic partner dedicated to supporting your mission and growth. Commitment to Supply Chain Excellence and Operational Reliability

At 12Panel Now, we understand that supply chain stability is paramount to your operational success.

Volume-Based Pricing and Centralized Distribution:

Please note that all unit pricing detailed within this proposal is a direct reflection of the significant economies of scale we achieve through our centralized, nationwide distribution model. Pricing is calculated based on direct, high-volume, bulk shipments originating from our primary fulfillment warehouse. By leveraging this optimized logistics system, we pass on substantial cost savings directly to Dee Davis Inc.

Inventory Assurance:

We maintain an unparalleled inventory depth, currently including over 500 million cups in stock across our network. This massive volume guarantees exceptional fulfillment reliability and insulates your operations from common supply chain disruptions, material shortages, and unexpected demand spikes. You can rely on 12Panel Now to consistently meet your needs, regardless of market volatility.

Rapid Fulfillment and Logistics:

To fully support your time-sensitive operational tempo, we have streamlined our order-to-shipment process. All orders are processed and confirmed for shipment on the same business day if submitted by our strict operational cutoff time of 3:00 PM EST. We partner with leading logistics providers to ensure fast, reliable delivery across the United States.

[Please note these prices are for Quantities of 25] I can't offer wholesale prices unless we have an estimate for monthly orders. We offered discounted prices.

We offer a curated selection of our most reliable and cost-effective multi-panel and specialty drug tests. All products listed are designed for maximum ease of use and superior accuracy, complying fully with CLIA-Waived regulations.
